

HOW TO ASK THE APPELLATE COURT TO PARTICIPATE IN AN APPEAL FOR FREE

Who can ask the court to participate in an appeal for free?

Anyone who must pay a fee in the appellate court as part of an appeal can ask the court to participate for free. You can ask for yourself, your minor child, or an incompetent adult, but not for anyone else. NOTE: this form cannot be used to waive fees owed to the trial court or court reporters for preparation of a record on appeal.

How will I know if there are fees for filing documents in the appellate court?

The Appellate Clerk can tell you if there is a fee for filing a document with the court. Supreme Court Rule 313 requires the person who files an appeal to pay a $50 fee. Rule 313 requires all other parties to pay a $30 fee.

What forms do I need to fill out to ask the appellate court to let me participate in an appeal for free?

There are two forms:

- Application for Waiver of Court Fees (Appellate Court) gives your income and expense information to the court so it can decide if you can participate in an appeal for free.
- Order for Waiver of Court Fees (Appellate Court) to be used by the court to say whether your application is granted or denied. Complete the top half of the Order and attach to the Application for Waiver of Court Fees.

Where can I find the forms I need?

- You can find forms at: illinoiscourts.gov/Forms/approved/
- You can also ask the Appellate Clerk for a copy.

When do I have to file an Application for Waiver of Court Fees?

- At the time you file your first document with the appellate court, you must file a completed Application for Waiver of Court Fees.
- It might take the appellate court a couple of weeks to review your application and decide whether you have to pay the appellate court fees, so do not wait until the last minute.

Do I have to pay a fee to file an Application for Waiver of Court Fees?

No, there is no cost for filing an Application for Waiver of Court Fees.

How do I prove I cannot afford to pay court fees?

The judge may require you to prove what you have provided in your Application.

- If you get public benefits (Supplemental Security Income; Aid to the Aged, Blind and Disabled; Temporary Assistance to Needy Families; State Children & Family Assistance; Food Stamps; General Assistance; OR Transitional Assistance), you may want to file a current proof of eligibility and benefits statement from the agency providing the benefit along with your forms.

If you don't get public benefits, you may want to file documents showing your income and expense information along with your forms.

Do I have to file an Application for Waiver of Court Fees each time I want to file something?

- No. Once the appellate court grants an Order for Waiver of Court Fees in a case, you do not have to file out another Application during the appeal. File the Order for Waiver of Court Fees to the Appellate Clerk whenever a fee is required in the case.
- However, if you file another case with the appellate court, you will need to file a separate Application.

What do I do after I fill out the Application for Waiver of Court Fees and Order for Waiver of Court Fees form?

Step 1: File your Application with the appellate court.

- You must file your forms with the appellate court where your appeal will be heard. Your appeal will be heard in the appellate court district where the trial court that ruled on your case is located. For help determining which appellate court your appeal should be filed in click here: en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Illinois_Appellate_Court
- You must electronically file (e-file) court documents unless (1) you are an inmate in a prison or jail and you do not have a lawyer; or (2) you qualify for an exemption from e-filing.
 - You will qualify for an exemption if: (1) you do not have internet or computer access at home and it would be difficult for you to travel to a place where you could use a computer, (2) you have a disability that keeps you from e-filing, or (3) you have trouble reading or speaking in English.
 - Fill out a Certification for Exemption from E-Filing found online here: illinoiscourts.gov/Forms/approved/supreme/supreme.asp
 - Deliver your original Application and the Certification to the Supreme Court Clerk's office in person, by mail, or by third-party commercial carrier (e.g., FedEx or UPS).

- To e-file, create an account with an e-filing service provider.
 - Visit efile.illinoiscourts.gov/service-providers.htm to select a service provider. Some service providers are free while others charge a processing fee. For instructions on how to e-file for free with Odyssey eFileIL, see the self-help user guides here:
illinoiscourts.gov/CivilJustice/Resources/Self-Represented_Litigants/self-represented.asp
- If you do not have access to a computer or if you need help e-filing, bring your form to the Supreme Court Clerk's office where you can use a public computer terminal to e-file your form.
 - You can bring your form on paper or saved on a flash drive.
 - The terminal will have a scanner and computer that you can use to e-file your form.
- At the same time you file your Application, you will also need to file any other forms you are planning to file, such as Petition for Leave to Appeal, or Motion when you file your Application for Waiver of Court Fees. You can find these forms at:
illinoiscourts.gov/Forms/approved/appellate/appellate.asp

Step 2: Wait for a decision.

- The appellate court will review your Application for Waiver of Court Fees and decide whether you have to pay the appellate court fees.
- The appellate court may need more information from you. The appellate court will notify you if you need to give more information or go to court.
- After the court makes a decision, the court will complete the Order for Waiver of Court Fees. The Order for Waiver of Court Fees will show if you have to pay court fees. The Appellate Clerk will mail or email you a copy of the Order.
