

HOW TO ASK THE COURT TO PARTICIPATE IN A COURT CASE FOR FREE

---

Who can ask the court to participate in a court case for free?

Anyone who must pay a fee as part of a court case. You can ask for yourself, your minor child, or an incompetent adult, but not for anyone else.

How will I know if there is a fee?

The Circuit Clerk can tell you if there is a fee for filing a document with the court. Other fees might come up during the case. For example, the judge might tell you about a fee or the sheriff's department might tell you about a fee for delivering (service of) court papers.

What forms do I need to fill out to ask the court to let me participate in a case for free?

- Application for Waiver of Court Fees: to give your income and expense information to the court so it can decide if you can participate in a court case for free.
- Order for Waiver of Court Fees: is used by the judge to say your application is granted or denied.

Where can I find the forms I need?

You can find forms at:

<http://www.illinoiscourts.gov/Forms/approved/>.

Is there a deadline for filing an Application for Waiver of Court Fees?

- No. You can file an Application for Waiver of Court Fees at any time during the court case.
- But it might take the court a couple of days to review your application and to decide whether you have to pay the filing fees, so don't wait until the last minute.
- You are responsible for knowing if there are other deadlines to file documents.

Do I have to pay to file an Application for Waiver of Court Fees?

No, there is no cost for filing an Application for Waiver of Court Fees.

Do I have to file an Application for Waiver of Court Fees each time I want to file something?

No. Once the court grants an Order for Waiver of Court Fees, you should not have to fill out another application during the court case, unless the court requests more information from you. Show the Order for Waiver of Court Fees to the Circuit Clerk or sheriff whenever a fee is required in the case.

How do I prove I cannot afford to pay court fees?

The judge may require you to prove what you have written in your Application.

- If you get public benefits (Supplemental Security Income; Aid to the Aged, Blind and Disabled; Temporary Assistance to Needy Families; State Children & Family Assistance; Food Stamps; General Assistance; OR Transitional Assistance), you may want to bring a current proof of eligibility and benefits statement from the agency providing the benefit when you file your forms.
- If you don't get public benefits, you may want to bring documents showing your income and expense information when you file your forms.

What do I do after I fill out the Application for Waiver of Court Fees and Order for Waiver of Court Fees?

Step 1: File your Application for Waiver of Court Fees with the Circuit Clerk in the county where your court case was filed.

- You must electronically file (e-file) court documents unless (1) you are an inmate in a prison or jail and you do not have a lawyer, or (2) you qualify for an exemption from e-filing.
  - You will qualify for an exemption if: (1) you do not have internet or computer access at home and it would be difficult for you to travel to a place where you could use a computer, (2) you have a disability that keeps you from e-filing, or (3) you have trouble reading or speaking in English.
  - Fill out a Certification for Exemption from E-Filing found here: www.illinoiscourts.gov/Forms/approved/default.asp.
  - File the original and 1 copy of your Application for Waiver of Court Fees, and the Certification, with the Circuit Clerk's office in person or by mail.
- To e-file, create an account with an e-filing service provider.
  - Visit <http://efile.illinoiscourts.gov/service-providers.htm> to select a service provider. Some service providers are free while others charge a processing fee. For instructions on how to e-file for free with Odyssey eFileIL, see the self-help user guides here: http://www.illinoiscourts.gov/CivilJustice/Resources/Self-Represented\_Litigants/self-represented.asp
- If you do not have access to a computer or if you need help e-filing, take your form to the Circuit Clerk's office where you can use a public computer terminal to e-file your form.
  - You can bring your form on paper or saved on a flash drive.
  - The terminal will have a scanner and computer that you can use to e-file your form.

Step 2: Wait for a decision.

- The court will review your Application for Waiver of Court Fees and decide whether you have to pay the court fees.
- The court may need more information from you. The court may want to have a hearing on your Application. The court will notify you if you need to give more information or documents, or go to court.
- After the court makes a decision, the court will fill out the Order for Waiver of Court Fees. The Order for Waiver of Court Fees will say if you have to pay court fees. The court will give you a copy of this Order.
- The Circuit Clerk will tell you how and when you will get a copy of the Order for Waiver of Court Fees.
- If the court decides you have to pay the court fees and you do not pay by the deadline in the Order for Waiver of Court Fees, the court may dismiss your case or find against you.
- If the court decides you do not have to pay court fees and you win your case and get money from the other side, the court may make you use all or part of this money to pay the court fees.
