Notice to Debtor

- You can come to court on the court date listed in section 3. You may be able to claim certain protections (exemptions) at that court date. For a list of exemptions see section 7 below. See How to File an Emergency Motion to Claim Exemption for information on how to file this Motion.
- If you need to be heard earlier than the court date listed in section 3, you can file an Emergency Motion to Claim Exemption.
- You do not have to come to court, but if you do not come to court, and you have money in this bank, the court may turn your money over to the creditor.

Notice to Bank

- If you do not answer or come to the court date listed in section 3, the judge may do one of two things:
 - Issue a rule to show cause; OR
 - Enter a conditional judgment.
- If there is a rule to show cause court date, you will have to explain why you did not come to court on the court date and why you should not be found in contempt of court. If you do not come to the rule to show cause on the set court date, the judge may find you in contempt, and you might be arrested and jailed.
- If the court enters a conditional judgment, you will have 30 days to answer or appear. If you fail to do so, then the court may enter a final judgment against you.

6. The bank's duties and obligations:

You must file the Answer on page 4 telling the Court about all accounts or safety deposit boxes that the debtor may have an ownership interest in or appears as a signatory. You must not transfer (sell, give away or get rid of) any property not exempt from the enforcement of a judgment. This prohibition shall remain in effect until further order of the court or termination of the proceeding. The bank is required to withhold double the unpaid amount listed below in paragraph 8. The bank is not required to withhold beyond double the unpaid amount listed below.

If the account consists solely of funds that can be identified as exempt under federal or state law, the bank is PROHIBITED from withholding the funds, and the bank must respond that the funds are exempt. Deposited funds that are exempt under federal and state law include Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI) and Social Security Retirement Insurance (SSRI), Supplemental Security Income (SSI), veteran's benefits, public assistance benefits, unemployment compensation benefits, child support and/or circuit breaker property tax relief benefits.

7. The debtor has the right to claim certain protections ("exemptions").

If the debtor claims an exemption, the income or property covered by that exemption cannot be taken to pay the judgment. Here are some exemptions the debtor may be able to claim:

1. Money or belongings up to $4,000 ("wildcard exemption");
2. Social Security, Supplemental Security Income benefits, and disability;
3. Public assistance benefits;
4. Child support;
5. Unemployment compensation benefits;
6. Workers' compensation benefits;
7. Veteran's benefits;
8. Circuit breaker property tax relief benefits;
9. Debtor's equity interest, up to $2,400, in any one motor vehicle;
10. Debtor's equity interest, up to $1,500, in any professional books, or tools of their trade;
11. Pension and retirement benefits and refunds; AND
12. Debtor's equity interest, up to $15,000, in the house they live in.

To debtor: see Emergency Motion to Claim Exemption for further instruction on how to ask the court for these exemptions.

The debtor has the right at the court date listed in section 3 to declare property or income as exempt. The debtor also has the right to ask for these exemptions at an earlier date by notifying the clerk in writing at the office of the Circuit Clerk. A court date will be promptly set. Necessary forms must be prepared by the debtor and sent to the bank and the creditor or the creditor's attorney.

In 8a, enter the name of the debtor and the date of the judgment. If the judgment has been renewed ("revived"), enter that date.

In 8b, enter the amount of the judgment.

In 8c, enter how much is still owed to you. You are entitled to the judgment amount, court costs (e.g., filing fees, service fees, sheriff's fee, etc.), and post judgment interest of 9% per year. Subtract any payments made by the debtor.

8. Certification by the creditor:

- a. A judgment was entered or renewed _____ ,
Name
 the debtor, on _____ .
Date
- b. The amount of the judgment is $ _____ .
- c. The current amount that remains to be paid, including the creditor's court costs and post judgment interest, minus any payment made by the debtor or on behalf of the debtor after the judgment was entered is $ _____ plus costs of this proceeding.

You must mail this Citation by first-class regular mail to the debtor.

I certify I will mail by regular first-class mail a copy of the Citation to the debtor at the address shown above within 3 business days after service on the bank's registered agent.
