

SUPREME COURT OF ILLINOIS

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 2005

THE COURT MADE THE FOLLOWING ANNOUNCEMENTS:

MISCELLANEOUS RECORD

M.R.18852 - In re: Joseph A. Martinez-Fraticelli.
No. 101317 Disciplinary Commission.

The petition by the Administrator of the Attorney Registration and Disciplinary Commission for leave to file exceptions to the report and recommendation of the Review Board is allowed. The petition for leave to file exceptions shall stand as the brief of Administrator-appellant. The brief of respondent-appellee is due on or before October 31, 2005. Remaining briefs, if any, to be filed according to Supreme Court Rule 343.

Order entered by the Court.

M.R.20140 - In re: Carol Lorraine Cagle. Disciplinary Commission.

The petition by respondent Carol Lorraine Cagle for leave to file exceptions to the report and recommendation of the Review Board is denied. Respondent is suspended from the practice of law for nine (9) months, as recommended by the Review Board.

Suspension effective October 17, 2005.

Respondent Carol Lorraine Cagle shall reimburse the Disciplinary Fund for any Client Protection payments arising from her conduct prior to the termination of the period of suspension.

Order entered by the Court.

M.R.20152 - In re: Joseph Alfred DiCaprio. Disciplinary Commission.

The petition by respondent Joseph Alfred DiCaprio for leave to file exceptions to the report and recommendation of the Review Board is denied. Respondent is suspended from the practice of law for twelve (12) months, as recommended by the Review Board.

Suspension effective October 17, 2005.

Respondent Joseph Alfred DiCaprio shall reimburse the Disciplinary Fund for any Client Protection payments arising from his conduct prior to the termination of the period of suspension.

Order entered by the Court.

M.R.20180 - In re: Peter Angelo Loutos. Disciplinary Commission.

The motion by Peter Angelo Loutos to strike his name from the roll of attorneys licensed to practice law in Illinois pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 762(a) is denied without prejudice to refile a motion under Rule 762(a) requesting that the disbarment on consent be effective February 5, 2004, the date of interim suspension.

Order entered by the Court.

M.R.20187 - In re: Robert Sheldon Fritzshall. Disciplinary Commission.

The petition by the Administrator of the Attorney Registration and Disciplinary Commission for leave to file exceptions to the report and recommendation of the Review Board is denied. As recommended by the Review Board, respondent Robert Sheldon Fritzshall is suspended from the practice of law for six (6) months, with the suspension stayed after one (1) month by probation subject to the following conditions:

a. Respondent shall establish and utilize a system for handling funds belonging to clients and third parties that conforms to the requirements of Rule 1.15 of the Illinois Rules of Professional Conduct and instructions provided to respondent by the Administrator, including:

Trust Account Procedures

Basic accounting records that must be maintained daily and accurately:

Account Check Register: List sequentially all trust account deposits and trust account checks and maintain a current and accurate daily balance on the trust account.

Account Receipts Journal: List chronologically all deposits into the trust account. Each deposit will list the date of the deposit, the source of the deposit, the client matter, the deposit number, and the amount of the deposit. Maintain a copy of each item deposited.

Account Disbursement Journal: List chronologically all trust account disbursements. Identify each disbursement with the date of the disbursement check, the trust account check number, the payee, the purpose of the disbursement, the client matter, and the amount of the disbursement check.

Client Ledger Journal: List chronologically for each client matter all receipts, disbursements, and remaining balances. Prepare a separate page for each client matter and list chronologically all receipts and disbursements and remaining balances for each client matter.

Source documents which must be preserved for seven years:

Bank Statements

Deposit slips.

Cancelled checks. All trust account checks must have a named payee (no checks written to "cash") and the memo portion of the check must contain a reference to a client matter.

Time and Billing Records

Copies of records from client files that are necessary for a full understanding of the lawyer's financial transactions with the client: e.g., retainer and engagement agreements, statements to clients showing the disbursement of the settlement proceeds, bills sent to clients and records of payments to other lawyers or non-employees for services rendered.

Reconciliations

There must be a running balance maintained for all ledgers and account books. The balances in the client ledger journal must be reconciled each month with the balances in the trust receipts and disbursement journals, the account checkbook register, and the bank statements. Records of these reconciliations must be maintained for seven years.

b. During the period of probation, respondent shall meet with counsel for the Administrator on at least a quarterly basis and shall provide the Administrator with any and all documents and records requested in order to verify his compliance with condition a.

c. Respondent shall notify the Administrator within fourteen (14) days of any change of address.

d. Respondent shall comply with the Illinois Rules of Professional Conduct and shall timely cooperate with the Administrator in providing information regarding any investigations relating to his conduct.

e. Respondent shall reimburse the Commission for the costs of this proceeding as defined in Supreme Court Rule 773 and shall reimburse the Commission for any further costs incurred during the period of probation.

f. Probation shall be revoked if respondent is found to have violated any of the terms of probation. The remaining five (5)-month period of suspension shall commence from the date of the determination that any term of probation has been violated.

Suspension effective October 17, 2005.

Respondent Robert Sheldon Fritzshall shall reimburse the Disciplinary Fund for any Client Protection payments arising from his conduct prior to the termination of the period of suspension/probation.

Order entered by the Court.

e. At least thirty (30) days prior to the termination of the period of probation, respondent shall reimburse the Disciplinary Fund for any Client Protection payments arising from his conduct;

f. Respondent shall, within the first thirty (30) days of probation, enroll in a law office management program approved by the Administrator and notify the Administrator of the name of the attorney with whom he is assigned to work. Respondent shall successfully complete the law office management program at least thirty (30) days prior to the end of the probation term. Through his participation in the law office management program, respondent shall establish and utilize the following:

(1) a system for maintaining records as required by Supreme Court Rule 769;

(2) a diary and docketing system in accordance with the requirements established by the law office management program, including a mechanism by which approaching statutes of limitations are noted;

(3) a system by which telephone messages are recorded and telephone calls are returned in a timely manner;

(4) a system by which written requests by clients for the status of their legal matters are responded to, whether orally, or in writing, in a timely manner;

(5) for cases which the fee is to be calculated on an hourly basis, a system by which clients are provided with regular itemized billing statements provided at least quarterly, setting forth the services performed by respondent, the date upon which each service was performed, the time spent by respondent on each service and the amount to be charged to the client; and,

(6) a system for handling of funds belonging to clients and third parties that conforms to the requirements of Rule 1.15 of the Illinois Rules of Professional Conduct.

g. Respondent shall authorize the attorney assigned to work with him in the law office management program to:

(1) disclose to the Administrator on a quarterly basis, by way of signed reports, information pertaining to the nature of respondent's compliance with the law office management program and the above-described conditions;

(2) promptly report to the Administrator respondent's failure to comply with any part of the above-described conditions; and

(3) respond to any inquiries by the Administrator regarding respondent's compliance with the above-described conditions.

h. Respondent shall complete the course in legal ethics and professional responsibility offered by the Illinois Professional Responsibility Institute;

i. At least thirty (30) days prior to the termination of probation, respondent shall pay restitution in the amount of $10,000 to James Maroney; and

j. Probation shall be revoked if respondent is found to have violated any of the terms of probation. The thirty (30)-day period of suspension shall commence from the date of the determination that any term of probation has been violated, and if restitution has not been paid as of that date, the suspension shall continue until it is paid.
