Illinois Judicial Conference Study Committee on Juvenile Justice

CONFERENCE YEAR 2012

Statement of Purpose:

The Study Committee on Juvenile Justice shall review and assess practices related to the processing of juvenile delinquency, abuse, neglect, and dependency cases. The Committee shall provide judges with current developments in the processing of juvenile court cases through up-dating and distributing the juvenile law benchbook (Volumes I and II).

General Charge:

The Committee shall study and make recommendations on the processing of juvenile delinquency, abuse, neglect, and dependency cases; prepare supplemental updates to the juvenile law benchbooks for distribution to judges reviewing such proceedings brought in juvenile court; and, make recommendations regarding training for juvenile court judges on emerging issues of juvenile law identified during the course of the Committee's work on the benchbook or during Committee meetings.
