  2. The children's primary residence is in any other county in Illinois and the move is within Illinois but more than 50 miles away from their current residence; OR

Some state or federal laws require picking a custodian for the children. In 11a, choose the parent with the majority of the parenting time. If there is equal parenting time, check the parent that will be receiving Federal and State benefits for the children, like SNAP or TANF.

In 11b, choose the parent that has the majority of the parenting time with the children. If there is equal parenting time, check the parent whose address will be given to the school as the children's home address.

c. Agreement

1. If the parents agree on the move and no change is needed to the parenting time schedule, both parties shall sign the notices provided about the move and file it with the court. No court appearance is needed.
2. If the other parent agrees with the move but changes need to be made to parenting time schedule, and the parents are in agreement about the changes to the parenting time schedule, the moving parent must:
  - Have the other parent sign the notice provided about the move;
  - File the signed notice with the court; AND
  - File an updated parenting plan with the court. The court does not need to approve the relocation but the court must approve the changes to the Parenting Plan.

d. Partial Agreement

If the other parent agrees with the move, but both parents cannot agree on changes to the Parenting Plan, the moving parent must:

- Have the other parent sign the notice provided about the move;
- File the signed notice with the court;
- Follow the Resolving Disagreements process set out below to try to reach an agreement with the other parent about changes to the parenting time schedule; AND
- If no agreement can be reached after completing the Resolving Disagreements process, file a petition to modify the parenting time schedule with the court.

e. No Agreement

If the other parent does not agree with the move, the parent relocating must:

- Follow the Resolving Disagreements process set out below to try to reach an agreement with the other parent; AND

12. Changing the Parenting Plan:

If a parent wants to change this Parenting Plan, they should talk and try to reach an agreement on their own.

Follow the steps in "a" if there is an agreement. Follow the steps in "b" if there is not.

a. Agreement

- Temporary changes may be made without filing a written agreement with the court.
- Permanent changes should be made by filing a new Parenting Plan with the court.

b. No agreement

- Follow the Resolving Disagreements process set out below to try to reach an agreement about changes to the Parenting Plan. If an agreement is reached, follow the steps in "a".
- If no agreement can be reached after completing the Resolving Disagreements process, file a petition with the court asking for changes to be made to this Parenting Plan.
- This Parenting Plan must be followed until the parents complete the Resolving Disagreements process and agree to a new plan or a new Parenting Plan is approved by the court.

Check 13a or b. If you check b, check the reason mediation is not required.

13. Resolving Disagreements (mediation):

If a parent wishes to change this Parenting Plan or feels the other parent is not following this Parenting Plan, the parents should talk and try to come to an agreement on their own.

If an agreement cannot be reached, parents must follow the steps below:

a.  Mediation is required on all issues.

Parents must first try to come to an agreement through mediation.

- Both parents must cooperate in scheduling and participating in mediation.
- Both parents must split the cost of mediation equally unless otherwise ordered by the court.

If mediation is unsuccessful, a parent must file a petition to modify this Parenting Plan or a petition to enforce this Parenting Plan with the court.

Emergencies: In an emergency situation, a parent may file a petition with the court to get an immediate resolution without first going through mediation.

b.  Mediation is not required because:

One parent has all significant decision making responsibility.

There is a history of domestic violence between the parties.
