

HOW TO ASK THE SUPREME COURT TO PARTICIPATE IN AN APPEAL FOR FREE

Who can ask the court to participate in an appeal for free?

Anyone who must pay a fee in the Supreme Court as part of an appeal can ask the court to participate for free. You can ask for yourself, your minor child, or an incompetent adult, but not for anyone else. NOTE: this form cannot be used to waive fees owed to the trial court or appellate court.

How will I know if there are fees for filing documents in the Supreme Court?

The Supreme Court Clerk can tell you if there is a fee for filing a document with the court. Supreme Court Rule 313 requires the person who files an appeal to pay a $50 fee. Rule 313 requires all other parties to pay a $30 fee.

What form do I need to fill out to ask the Supreme Court to let me participate in an appeal for free?

There is one form:

- Application for Waiver of Court Fees (Supreme Court) gives your income and expense information to the court so it can decide if you can participate in an appeal for free.

Where can I find the form I need?

- You can find the forms online at: illinoiscourts.gov/Forms/approved/supreme/supreme.asp
- You can also ask the Supreme Court Clerk for a copy.

When do I have to file an Application for Waiver of Court Fees?

- At the time you file your first document with the Supreme Court, you must file a completed Application for Waiver of Court Fees.
- It might take the Supreme Court a couple of weeks to review your application and decide whether you have to pay the Supreme Court fees, so do not wait until the last minute.

Do I have to pay a fee to file an Application for Waiver of Court Fees?

No, there is no cost for filing an Application for Waiver of Court Fees.

How do I prove I cannot afford to pay court fees?

The Supreme Court may require you to prove what you have provided in your Application.

- If you get public benefits (Supplemental Security Income; Aid to the Aged, Blind and Disabled; Temporary Assistance to Needy Families; State Children & Family Assistance; Food Stamps; General Assistance; OR Transitional Assistance), you may want to file a current proof of eligibility and benefits statement from the agency providing the benefit along with your form.

If you don't get public benefits, you may want to file documents showing your income and expense information along with your form.

Do I have to file an Application for Waiver of Court Fees each time I want to file something?

- No. Once the Supreme Court allows an Application for Waiver of Court Fees in a case, you do not have to fill out another Application during the appeal.
- However, if you file another case with the Supreme Court, you will need to file a separate Application.

What do I do after I fill out the Application for Waiver of Court Fees form?

Step 1: File your Application with the Supreme Court.

- You must electronically file (e-file) court documents unless (1) you are an inmate in a prison or jail and you do not have a lawyer; or (2) you qualify for an exemption from e-filing.
 - You will qualify for an exemption if: (1) you do not have internet or computer access at home and it would be difficult for you to travel to a place where you could use a computer, (2) you have a disability that keeps you from e-filing, or (3) you have trouble reading or speaking in English.
 - Fill out a Certification for Exemption from E-Filing found online here: illinoiscourts.gov/Forms/approved/supreme/supreme.asp
 - Deliver your original Application and the Certification to the Supreme Court Clerk's office in person, by mail, or by third-party commercial carrier (e.g., FedEx or UPS).
- To e-file, create an account with an e-filing service provider.
 - Visit efile.illinoiscourts.gov/service-providers.htm to select a service provider. Some service providers are free while others charge a processing fee. For instructions on how to e-file for free with Odyssey eFileIL, see the self-help user guides here: illinoiscourts.gov/CivilJustice/Resources/Self-Represented_Litigants/self-represented.asp
- If you do not have access to a computer or if you need help e-filing, bring your form to the Supreme Court Clerk's office where you can use a public computer terminal to e-file your form.
 - You can bring your form on paper or saved on a flash drive.

- The terminal will have a scanner and computer that you can use to e-file your form.
- At the same time you file your Application, you will also need to file any other forms you are planning to file, such as Petition for Leave to Appeal, or Motion when you file your Application for Waiver of Court Fees. You can find these forms at:
illinoiscourts.gov/Forms/approved/

Step 2: Wait for the Supreme Court to decide.

- The Supreme Court will review your Application for Waiver of Court Fees and decide whether you have to pay the Supreme Court fees.
- The Supreme Court may need more information from you. The Supreme Court Clerk will notify you if you need to give more information.
- After the court makes a decision, the Supreme Court Clerk will notify you whether the fee was waived or is now due, and mail or email you a copy of the official notice of order.
