Illinois Supreme Court Justice Rita B. Garman will be the featured speaker at the Logan County Bar Association's Law Day luncheon to be held Monday, April 30 in the Alumni Room of Lincoln College.

The luncheon is an annual event hosted by the Logan Bar Association as part of a nationwide celebration of Law Day which was established by President Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1958, said Blinn Bates, president of the local bar group, and attorney with the Lincoln firm of Woods and Bates.

This year's theme for Law Day, as designated by the American Bar Association, is "No Courts, No Justice, No Freedom".

The event begins at noon. The Alumni Room is located in the Meyer-Evans Student Center on the campus of Lincoln College in Lincoln.

Another is the Judicial Performance Evaluation Committee. She also serves as co-liaison to the Illinois Historic Preservation Commission with Justice Anne M. Burke. The Commission is co-sponsoring several statewide events this year regarding Mary Todd Lincoln, wife of President Abraham Lincoln, including a retrial of her insanity commitment.
