MEDIA ADVISORY-- May 18, 2015

ILLINOIS SUPREME COURT ORAL ARGUMENT TO BE STREAMED LIVE

The oral argument in Sharon Price, Indv., et al., etc. v. Philip Morris Inc. will be heard by the Illinois Supreme Court and streamed live online at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday, May 19, 2015.

It will be captured by three high-definition cameras permanently installed in the Courtroom of the Supreme Court Building at 200 E. Capitol Ave. in Springfield. It will be streamed live on the Internet through the Court's website: www.illinoiscourts.gov. A link to the video will be provided in the "Latest News" scroll or you can go to the "Quick Links" tab on the left side of the Court's home page and click on "Oral Argument Audio & Video."

The livestream will also be available from Advanced Digital Media/Blueroomstream.com at <https://livestream.com/blueroomstream/events/4050334>

Seating within the second floor courtroom of the Supreme Court Building will be on a first-come, first-served basis. Seating will also be available in the attorneys' room adjacent to the courtroom, where the argument will be streamed for viewing on monitors.

No cameras will be allowed in the courtroom. No recorders, computers or smart devices will be allowed to be operated in the courtroom.

Media will be allowed to record directly from the courtroom through a mult box if they have previously applied for and received permission to record under Supreme Court rules. Advanced Digital Media/Blueroomstream applied for and was granted the media pool for the argument
