Illinois Judicial Conference Committee on Discovery Procedures

CONFERENCE YEAR 2011

Statement of Purpose:

The Committee on Discovery Procedures shall review and assess discovery devices used in Illinois, with the goal of making recommendations to expedite discovery and to eliminate any abuses of the discovery process.

General Charge:

The Committee shall study and make recommendations on the discovery devices used in Illinois including, but not limited to, depositions, interrogatories, requests for production of documents or tangible things or inspection of real property, disclosures of expert witnesses, and requests for admission. The Committee shall investigate and make recommendations on innovative means of expediting pretrial discovery and ending any abuses of the discovery process so as to promote early settlement discussions and to encourage civility among attorneys. The Committee will also review and make recommendations on proposals concerning discovery matters submitted by the Supreme Court Rules Committee, other Committees or other sources.
