In re: Supreme Court e-Business Policy Advisory Board and e-Business Technical Committee

Order

e-Business Policy Advisory Board

The Supreme Court e-Business Policy Advisory Board (Advisory Board) shall provide recommendations, advice, and guidance to the Supreme Court and its Administrative Office of the Illinois Courts regarding implementation of e-Business applications and data exchanges in Illinois circuit courts. The Advisory Board shall also provide oversight and direction to the Supreme Court e-Business Technical Committee in its development of technical standards and documentation of NIEM and data mapping standards.

Further, the Advisory Board shall evaluate e-Business applications and requests for court data by ensuring consistency in the trial courts with regard to the purpose of the data requested, exchange partners involved, data privacy issues, and conformance with Supreme Court Rules, policies and statutes. The Advisory Board shall submit recommendations to the Court concerning proposed rules, inter-agency agreements, and legislative changes which are necessary to govern e-Business in the trial court. The Advisory Board shall also prioritize requests for court data and e-Business applications which benefit the Court and promote the use of NIEM as an Illinois Court data standard. The Advisory Board shall submit its recommendations and reports to the Court through the Administrative Director for presentation during Court Terms.
