

HOW TO ASK THE COURT TO DELAY A FORECLOSURE SALE

What do these terms mean?

- Order: A direction given by a judge requiring or allowing a person to do or not do something.
- Judgment of Foreclosure: A court document that a judge signs allowing the bank to sell the property.
- Foreclosure Sale: A sale of property and an auction ordered by a judge following a foreclosure case.
- Stay a Foreclosure Sale: a delay of the foreclosure sale allowed by a judge. Staying a sale does not undo the Judgment of Foreclosure. The sale will likely still happen at a later date. The judge will decide whether to delay the sale.

When should I file a Motion to Stay a Foreclosure Sale?

- A “Judgment of Foreclosure” was entered against you;
- You received a “Notice of Foreclosure Sale” or know that the sale is going to happen;
- You wish to delay a foreclosure sale; AND
- You have a loan modification application pending, a short sale contract for the property being sold as a result of a foreclosure, or a good reason for asking to delay the foreclosure sale.

What forms do I fill out to ask the judge to stay a foreclosure sale?

- Motion to Stay a Foreclosure Sale asks the judge to delay the sale of the property; AND
- Notice of Motion to Stay a Foreclosure Sale tells all parties in the court case that you are asking the judge to delay the sale of the property and the hearing date and time.
- If you think a document would be helpful to your case, attach the document to your Motion to Stay a Foreclosure Sale, behind the Motion.

Where can I find the forms that I need?

You can find the forms at:

<http://www.illinoiscourts.gov/Forms/approved/>.

What costs will I need to pay to ask the court to stay a foreclosure sale?

There are no additional costs to file a Motion to Stay a Foreclosure Sale if you have already paid to file an Appearance with the court or received a court fee waiver. If you need a court fee waiver, fill out and file an Application for Waiver of Court Fees found at: <http://www.illinoiscourts.gov/Forms/approved/>.

What do I do after I fill out my Motion to Stay a Foreclosure Sale?

Step 1: File your forms with the Circuit Clerk in the county where the court case is filed.

- You must electronically file (e-file) court documents unless (1) you are an inmate in a prison or jail and you do not have a lawyer, or (2) you qualify for an exemption from e-filing.
  - You will qualify for an exemption if: (1) you do not have internet or computer access at home and it would be difficult for you to travel to a place where you could use a computer, (2) you have a disability that keeps you from e-filing, or (3) you have trouble reading or speaking in English.
  - Fill out a Certification for Exemption from E-Filing found here: www.illinoiscourts.gov/Forms/approved/default.asp.
  - File the original and 1 copy of your Motion to Stay a Foreclosure Sale, and the Certification, with the Circuit Clerk’s office in person or by mail.
- To e-file, create an account with an e-filing service provider.
  - Visit <http://efile.illinoiscourts.gov/service-providers.htm> to select a service provider. Some service providers are free while others charge a processing fee. For instructions on how to e-file for free with Odyssey eFileIL, see the self-help user guides here: http://www.illinoiscourts.gov/CivilJustice/Resources/Self-Represented\_Litigants/self-represented.asp
- If you do not have access to a computer or if you need help e-filing, take your Motion to the Circuit Clerk’s office where you can use a public computer terminal to e-file your form.
  - You can bring your form on paper or on a flash drive.
  - The terminal will have a scanner and computer that you can use to e-file your form.

Step 2: Send a copy of your Motion to Stay a Foreclosure Sale to the other parties.

- You must send your form to the other parties in the case. If a party has a lawyer, send the forms to the lawyer.
- You may send your form to the other parties personally, by mail, third-party commercial carrier (e.g., FedEx or UPS), or through the court’s electronic filing manager or an approved e-filing service provider. You may send your form to a party by email if they have listed their e-mail address on a court document. Complete the proof of delivery with information of how you sent the forms to each party. It has room for 3 parties. If you are sending forms to more than 3 parties, fill out and file one or more Additional Proof of Service forms with the Motion form.

- Check with court staff to see if you need to deliver another copy to the judge's office.
- You must send your copies by 5:00 p.m. on the date you file your forms even if you are filing by mail or online.
- Keep one copy of the forms that were stamped by the Circuit Clerk for your own records.

Step 3: Ask for a court date.

- Ask the Circuit Clerk if you have to schedule a court date or if one will be scheduled automatically.
- If you need to schedule the court date, ask the Circuit Clerk how to do so. The Circuit Clerk may schedule the court date or you may have to speak with other court staff.
- If you need to have your motion heard soon because of an upcoming sale date, let the court know this.
- When you get your court date, ask if the court will send notice of the court date to the other parties or if you need to.
- Enter the date and time in section 1 of the Notice of Motion to Stay a Foreclosure Sale.

Step 4: Get ready for your court date.

- Decide and write down:
  - What you want to ask the judge to do for you; AND
  - What you will say to the judge if asked to tell your side of the case.
- Gather and make copies of pictures and documents you want the judge to see. Bring the original for the judge and one copy for you and each of the people in the case.

Step 5: Go to your court date.

- Bring these items with you to court:
  - A copy of the Mortgage Foreclosure Complaint and Summons;
  - Two copies of your completed and stamped Motion to Stay Foreclosure Sale and Notice of Motion to Stay a Foreclosure Sale;
  - Order to Stay Foreclosure Sale; AND
  - Other papers related to your mortgage or home such as: proof of your payment history, loan modification packet, information from a housing counselor, real estate sale contract, proof of employment or other income.
- Get to the courthouse at least 30 minutes early.
- Go to the courtroom number listed on your court form. If your forms do not have a courtroom number look for a list of cases at the courthouse or ask the Circuit Clerk.
- Check in with the courtroom staff and wait for your name and case number to be called.
- When your case is called, walk to the judge and introduce yourself and briefly tell the judge what you are asking for. The judge will let you know what will happen next.

How do I present my case to the judge?

Step 1: Tell the judge your side of the case and answer questions.

- Bring any important documents relating to your foreclosure including documents mentioned above.
  - Give a copy to the judge and a copy to the other parties. Be prepared to explain why the document is important.
- The judge decides what materials can be considered in making a decision about your case.

Step 2: What do I do when the other parties present their case?

- The other parties will also get to present their case.
- Write down your questions while they are speaking to the judge.

Step 3: What happens after both sides present their case?

- The judge has to make a decision. The decision is called a court order.
- If the judge needs more information to make a decision, the judge may set up another court date. Make sure you understand what information is needed and get it before the new court date.
- If the judge needs to think about it more, the judge may let you know the decision later by mailing a court order or at another court date.
- If the judge has enough information, the judge may decide right then and fill out a court order.
  - Get a copy of the order that has the court stamp on it.

If the other party was not in court to get a copy, you must send them a copy by 5:00 p.m. on the date you get the order. Fill out and file a Proof of Delivery court form with the Circuit Clerk to show that you sent the copy. You may find the Proof of Delivery at:

<http://www.illinoiscourts.gov/Forms/approved/>.
