Jackson, case No. 3-06-0262 (9/21/07), in which the court found that each of the alleged failings of trial counsel falls within the strong presumption that counsel's actions were the result of sound trial strategy. The appellate court is directed to reconsider its decision to the extent it might be read to imply that the allegation regarding consumption of alcohol falls within the strong presumption that counsel's actions were the result of sound trial strategy.
